DALY PUZZLES DOGS LOSE TRAIL JURY IS SELECTED OF PRISONERS IN RAINES CASE

ISpecial to The Times-Dispatch.]

Cape Charles Va. February 22.—
The bloodhounds placed on the trail of the three prisoners who escaped from Enstville lail last night, lost the seent between Eastville and Machipongo, where it is supposed the fuglives boarded a freight train.

Although thirty hours had clapsed since the escape of the prisoners, the dogs did great work, taking the sceni from the cell in which the prisoners were confined and following it along the railroad tracks for a distance of the miles, it has been learned that the knife and saw with which the prisoners made their way to freedom were secreted in a loaf of bread which they had received from friends on the outside.
